

Halco Lighting Technologies Announces New Chicago Distribution Center

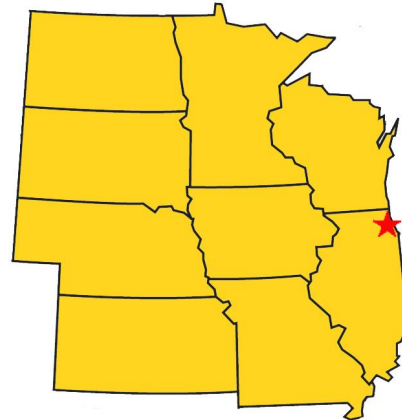

Halco Lighting Technologies is proud to announce KSA Lighting and Controls as its newest stocking warehouse. Located in Hanover Park, Illinois, the KSA location will stock more than 800 SKUs from the Halco Lighting line of lamps, ballasts, and luminaires.

The KSA distribution center will offer the Halco same-day shipping service that is provided at all Halco locations - orders placed by 2:00 pm local time will ship the same day. Service area is available to nine states including: Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota, and Wisconsin. A will-call service for local customers will also be provided.

KSA Lighting & Controls sets out to be the premier agency in the Chicago metropolitan area. That vision evolves with the continuous addition of team members that complement their commitment by focusing on consistently delivering superior service and being easy to do business with. Their customer centric approach and commitment to excellence allows them to continue building on a strong foundation from their beginnings.
